

Reunion Island - a culinary journey

In the Creole culture it is very important to eat well. Our self-drive itineraries give you plenty of flexibility and allow you to take in the island's diverse attractions at your own pace. Reunion's roads are in excellent condition, so getting around by means of a hired car is the most convenient way in which to reach places of interest. In a week, you can visit the magnificent Cirques (amphitheatres); the volcano Piton de la Fournaise; and relax on beaches fringed with coral reefs and of course enjoy visiting many restaurants.
